

September 10, 2009

From "The Complete Life's Little Instruction Book" by H. Jackson Brown, Jr.
"Think big thoughts, but relish small pleasures."

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

Beef Raffle tickets will go on sale September 24th and the raffle will take place on Thursday, October 15th

Oktoberfest is on October 3rd and signup sheets are on the tables each week. Please be sure and get your name on them.

Habitat for Humanity Work Day is Saturday, October 10th. Mike Moran is in charge of this project. Email address is mike@thebusinesstimes.com

Food Handling cards were passed out to those members that attended last week's meeting. Did you get yours?

Terry Wakefield and the presentation of Allocation Dollars!!

Terry and his Allocation Committee presented the dollars raised during Pancake Day to all of the nonprofit organizations. Many of these fine people representing their nonprofit were in the room and received the money from our great Grand Junction Kiwanis Club. The Daily Sentinel had a wonderful article in the newspaper on Thursday about all of the recipients.

That's all for now.

See you in two weeks; we are on our way to Raleigh North Carolina in the morning.

Until next time.....Roxie Denning, Bulletin Editor