

January 28, 2010

Today I will begin the bulletin in a different way and one that I hope brings a smile to your face☺ Deanna Colaizzi delivered our Joke of the Day and it went like this: “One day three blondes were walking down the beach when they saw that something had washed up on the beach. The first blonde shouts, “Look it’s a dinosaur!” The second blonde says, “No stupid. It’s the Titanic. Duh.” The third blonde chuckles. “You’re both dumb. It’s obviously a genie in a bottle.” So she proceeds to pick up the bottle and rub it. Sure enough! A genie pops out! The genie stretched and looks around to find the three blondes. “Normally,” the genie said, “I would grant three wishes, but since there are three of you, you each get one wish.” The first blonde steps forward. “Ok, I don’t like being a dumb blonde so I want to be 50% smarter.” The genie bobs his head and says “Done”. He turns her into a brunette. The second blonde says “I don’t like being a dumb blonde either so I want to be 100% smarter!” The genie turns her into a redhead. The last blonde ponders her wish for a moment and finally says, I like being a dumb blonde. I want to be 100% dumber.” The genie turns her into a man. Thanks, Deanna☺

Our greeters this week were Daryl Becker and Katie Ames and our raffle tickets were sold by Lynn Thompson. This week’s winner of $27.00 was Cyndi Klingaman. Blaine Scott delivered our invocation and as Jeanie Thomas played for us we sang “God Bless America”.

Our guest list was light and Dennis Durmas introduced his business partner. Happy Bucks came to us from Sally Ryan, John Hildebrand, Vikki Bell, Bev Troester, Katie Ames, Chris Gumone, Bill Byers and Don Teets. Our birthday club members are Omar Campos (January 25th), Vikki Bell (January 27th) and Lowell Shormann (January 29th). Fine Master Mailyn recognized Jeff Cyriacks for having too much fun and that cost him $2.00; while John Hildebrand was fined due to the fact that he did not mention Kiwanis in an article in the paper.

The money that was raised the week of January 21st and January 28th for the needs in Haiti reached a grand total of $1,550.00. Thank you to all who were able to make a contribution to this cause.

Deanna Colaizzi introduced our Young Students of the Month. Kyle Casteel from Palisade High School, Amelia LyBarger from Central High School, Tyler Pollock from Fruita Monument High School and Noelle DePuey from Grand Junction High School. These ambitious individuals never cease to amaze me!!!

Lt. Governor LeAnne Zetmeir gave us an update on Midwinter Conference on February 19th- 22nd in Longmont Colorado and Kiwanis International Convention in Las Vegas- June 24th-27th. Our Builder’s Club will begin in August 2010 and LeAnne attended the Kiwanis Club of Delta meeting.

Our Thought for the Day was delivered by Katie Ames and with that we were adjourned.

Until next week.....Roxie Denning, Bulletin Editor