

October 28.2010

On This Day in History- in 1636- Harvard College was founded in Massachusetts. It was the first college of higher education in America.

Our greeters with warm handshakes and hugs this week were the beautiful Rita Crumpton and the wonderful John Hildebrand. And as President Vern opened our meeting he welcomed all guests and members. LeAnn Zetmeir delivered our invocation and Jeanie Thomas played "God Bless America" for us. Vikki Bell delivered the Joke of the Day with a punch line of "Liver alone, cheese mine☺ Blaine Scott delivered our Thought for the Day. Thank you all for your contribution to our meeting.

Happy Bucks were paid and fines were collected. Some of the Kiwanians that were involved with fines, either as the finer or fined, are John Hildebrand, Peggy Page (did you see the $50.00 coupon from Page Parsons at your table?), Stephanie Tuin, Bill Kistler, Bob Colony, Annette Abeyta, Jeff Franklin, Orville Boge, Orville Petersen, Blaine Scott and Dave Kearsley.
