

October 7, 2010

This week, President Vern opened by welcoming all members and their guests. The energy in the room was high and Vern played off of the energy by assigning fines to Kiwanians in the room. Happy Bucks and fines were collected with a grand total of $273.40 and those dollars were donated to Dave and Kelsey from the Fruita Key Club to help with expenses for Key Leader program.

OCTOBER 2010 Birthday Club Members: Jim Moore- October 5th, Gary Brown- October 11th, Rita Crumpton- October 27th, Jeff McPherson- October 29th, Chris Gumone- October 30th and Nina Anderson- October 31st.

Our thanks go to Rita Crumpton, LeAnn Zetmeir, Bill Byers, John Hildebrand, Mike Stahl, Joe Breman and Blaine Scott for their help with this week's meeting. Eileen Gavin was the winner of the $28.00 raffle drawing!

This week's program focused on Amendments 60, 61 and 101.

Oktoberfest was a great success this year. Cathy Staten reported sales at $14,721.00 for the dogs, $1,000.00 in Coke sales and $107.00 in pumpkin sales for the Aktion Club!! In these slow economic times these returns are great!! Thanks to everyone that helped with this great event for GJ Kiwanis Club. There will be a wrap up meeting Monday, October 11th 9am at Main Street Bagels for anyone that would like to attend.

Rick Tuma talked about the Red Crawford Scholarship Fund that sits at $57,455.00. This fund is administered by the Mesa State College Foundation for Colorado resident sophomore students with focus on electronic technology.

Mike Moran announced the Habitat for Humanity Re-Store Anniversary Cookout Fundraiser on Saturday October 9th from 10:30am-6pm.

Next week our program will have us all in stitches as we take a look at OKTOBERFEST 2010 😊

That's it for now!!

Until next week.....Roxie Denning, Bulletin Editor
