

March 4, 2010

It was a beautiful day in Grand Junction and we had the pleasure of our greeters Amy Dyer and Chris Gumone welcoming us to our weekly meeting. Stephanie Tuin sold raffle tickets this week and I will refer to her as "My Lucky Stephanie" because for the first time EVER I won the raffle this week. My wallet is $37.00 richer because of that win!! Thank you, Stephanie!! President Mailyn opened our meeting and as we sang Zippy Doo Dah, Jeanie played for us on the piano. Nina Anderson delivered a wonderful invocation and with that we were off and running.

Bonnie Pehl-Petersen introduced Shari Hall as her guest this week; Bob Stratton brought Toby Daniels from RE Landscape Services as his guest and LeAnn Zetmeir introduced Earl and Katie Bushie from Hotchkiss Kiwanis Club. Earl invited us to their Annual Fish Fry on Friday, April 30th. Tickets are $9.00 and the event will go from 4pm-7pm.

Our Birthday Club Member this week was Terry Wakefield who celebrated his special day on Sunday, February 28th. Happy Day, Terry!!!!

Happy J Bucks came from Heather Smith, LeAnn Zetmeir, Deanna Colaizzi, Don Teets, Toni Heiden-Moran, Orville Petersen, Larry Beckner, Amy Dyer, Rick Nisley and John Hildebrand. Fine Master Mailyn was at the helm this week and those that were fined were Ron Sherman (glad to have you back, Ron), Stacey Mascarenas, Blaine Scott and Jeff Cyriacks.

Alan Watkins introduced Dr. Morgan Bridge from Mesa State College as our program this week. Dr Bridge spoke about the MBA Program at MSC and asked us to check out the program. Their web site is www.mesastate.edu/business for more information.
