

May 20th, 2010

Okay, this week you will get a condensed version of the Bulletin due to the fact that my sister and brother in law are due in today for the weekend. I hope that you enjoy!!

Our greeters Marsha Harbert and Sally Ryan were there with open arms and bright smiles. Pete Jouflas sold raffle tickets and the winner of $37.00 was Dave Harris. Stacey Mascarenas delivered our invocation and we were off and running.

Guests this week: Bob Burger with his daughter Lisa and son in law Mike; Claudia Jackson with her daughter Stephanie; Jeff Freeland with Nicole Hall; Jeff McPherson with Jessie and Brook Gonzales; and Shawna Bonner with Debra Heidel Davis.

Club Birthday Members are Wes D'Aponti (May 16th) and Deanna Colaizzi (May 22nd).

Happy Bucks came from Bill Byers, Vikki Bell, Jeff McPherson, John Hildebrand, Sandy Borman, Marsha Harbert, Jessica Miracle, Bob Burger, Alan Watkins, Orville Petersen, Bonnie Petersen, Joe Breman (thanks Joe), Jeff Gumone and Governor Rich Emerson.

Fine Master/President Mailyn fined Jeanie Thomas, Mike Moran and Sandy Borman.

Stacey Mascarenas introduced Donna Beck from Mesa County Partnership for Children and Families as our program this week. Visit their website for more information www.mesacountypcf.org

Bob Colony and Katie Ames reported on Corporate Sales at $29,395.00 toward our goal of $37,000.00.

Vikki Bell reported on our continuing membership drive and the prizes that are out there.

Heather Smith reported on Pancake Day Ticket sales.

And Brad Krebill talked about JUCO. The Kiwanis Sponsored team will be with us at lunch next week.

Joe Breman delivered our Joke of the Day and Marsha Harbert delivered the Thought for the Day.

Joe Breman brought gifts to President Mailyn from China and Israel.

So there you have the highlights of this week's meeting, my fellow Kiwanians.

Until next week.....Roxie Denning, Bulletin Editor
